LOCATION

M Drumchapel Shopping Centre is located approximately 6 miles north-west of Glasgow city centre, serving the established residential community of Drumchapel and the surrounding neighbourhoods. The area has a resident population of around 15,000 people, with an immediate catchment in excess of 115,000, providing a strong and consistent local customer base.

Drumchapel is a well-known residential district within the City of Glasgow, characterised by large-scale housing and a clearly defined local centre that plays an important role in meeting day-to-day shopping and service needs. The shopping centre sits at the heart of the community, benefitting from regular footfall generated by local residents and nearby community facilities.

The area is well connected by public transport, with Drumchapel railway station located on the Argyle Line, providing direct links into Glasgow city centre and the wider West of Scotland. The station serves both the Argyle and North Clyde lines, supporting convenient commuter access and reinforcing the centre's role as a key local amenity.
